Exit Ticket: Conflict and Plot

Answer the following questions in complete sentences. You may use your notes from the past few days. Remember to explain your answers—explain the hows and whys for all your answers.

1. What is main conflict in a story? How do we know it is the main conflict and not just a “problem” or “event” in a novel?

2. How are a main conflict and a plot connected to each other? Explain your answer. This question is not asking you to talk about Red Kayak, but instead to explain how any conflict is related to its matching plot.

3. How do the main conflict and plot in Red Kayak work together to create a story? In other words, how does the main conflict affect what happens in the plot in Red Kayak?
